As he entered, he saw nobody in the castle and decided to spend the night there.

The next morning, when he was about to leave, he saw a beautiful rose garden. His daughter was fond of roses so he plucked one of the roses for her.

Suddenly, a terrible beast appeared. The beast scolded him for stealing a rose from his premises. This frightened the merchant. He explained that the rose was for his daughter, Beauty.

The beast put a condition before him that if he wanted to save his life his daughter would have to come to the beast.

The fearful merchant immediately agreed.

On reaching home, he told the whole story to Beauty.

Without wasting any time, Beauty set off for the castle.
